During the first quarter of 1949, the sale of groats, macaroni, and beans increased 39.1 percent, bread 14.1 percent, butter 54.4 percent, and confectionary products 11 percent over the same period of 1948.

Seventeen new shops opened during the first quarter of 1949, including ten manufactured-goods shops and seven food shops. However, there were some serious inadequacies in State and cooperative trade. The retail commodity trade turnover, plan was met only 89.5 percent during the first quarter. Of this amount, the cooperative system completed only 82.9 percent of the plan and the Ministry of Trade Kazakh SSR 93 percent. Not a single cooperative fulfilled the quarterly plan for the purchase of agricultural products. Industrial cooperatives, invalids' cooperatives, and local industry especially failed to meet the plan for cooperative trade in the cities of the Republic.
